

Hurricane Helene

Long-Term Recovery Grant Program

December 16, 2024

Greetings,

In response to Hurricane Helene, the American Red Cross is launching long-term recovery operations across the impacted states, including grant programming to support projects focused on individual, household and community recovery and resiliency.

The Red Cross is issuing a Request for Proposal (RFP), and beginning January 8th, 2025, will begin accepting applications for projects that assist the long-term recovery of individuals and communities impacted by Hurricane Helene across North Carolina and Tennessee.

To support organizations interested in applying, the Red Cross is hosting an Announcement Session on Friday, December 20th in advance of the holiday season – please join us to hear high-level information about the RFP process.

Formal Information Sessions will begin on January 8th, 2025, when the Application Portal opens, and will recur weekly as indicated in the schedule below.
